BOUQUET CANYON CHURCH

CANYON CONNECTIONS

Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet.
John 13:14

Ciao!

by Billy Ford, Pastor (Adapted from an October 2012 article)

The word “ciao”, pronounced like “chow” in English, is used in many nations to say goodbye. But the term has an interesting and unexpected history. It comes from a Venetian term which means “I am your servant”, or more literally, “I am your slave”. In our culture today it usually seems demeaning to even use the word slave, let alone to willingly offer yourself as one. But the idea behind “I am your slave” is very Christian.

First, early Christian leaders saw themselves as slaves of Jesus Christ. Paul begins the book of Romans in this way: “This letter is from Paul, a slave of Christ Jesus, chosen by God to be an apostle and sent out to preach his Good News” (Romans 1:1). James, Jude, and 2 Peter begin the same way. The Greek word for slave is doulos, which literally means, “one who is bound.” It is sometimes translated as servant or bond-servant. So there is a sense in which we need to see ourselves as servants, even slaves, of the Lord. Does that rub you the wrong way? It should be hard to take. But maybe this will help: Jesus, whom we serve, was willing to become like a slave for us. Consider these words:

Have this attitude in yourselves which was also in Christ Jesus, who, although He existed in the form of God, did not regard equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied Himself, taking the form of a bond-servant, and being made in the likeness of men. Being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. – Philippians 2:5-8

The word underlined above is that Greek word doulos which means slave. The Son of God became a slave for our sake. In John 13 we see Him kneel down and perform the dirty job that was usually reserved for servants, washing the dusty feet of his disciples. Peter was shocked and tried to stop him because it just didn’t seem right. But Jesus insisted and when he was finished said, “Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another’s feet” (John 13:14).

So not only are we servants of the Lord, but we are to be servants of one another as well. Jesus put it bluntly in Matthew 20:26-27: “... Whoever wishes to become great among you shall be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you shall be your slave.”

How can we be each other’s servants today? We don’t really need to literally wash each other’s feet since we don’t walk in sandals on dusty roads. But there are other ways to serve one another in challenging and humbling ways. I am so blessed by those who serve in our church in various ministries, but especially those who work hard in behind the scenes roles that aren’t always pleasant. There are dozens in our church who work in the Kids & Teen Ministries so children can grow up in knowledge of the Lord and so their parents can experience worship and teaching without distraction. There are about 30 adults currently serving in the Custodial Ministry, periodically mopping, vacuuming, and cleaning toilets in our church facilities. There are many other examples. Are these types of roles beneath us? No, they are very similar to the feet washing example that the Lord gave us.

Have you found a way to serve the Lord and other Christians yet? Jesus set the example and, regardless of the world’s culture, the church’s culture should be characterized by servanthood. Pray about it. Ciao!

A New Stage of Life

February 3, 2020

by Rachel Ogg Merrick

On July 16, Albion and I said our vows and started a new stage of life as a married couple. It was a beautiful day. So many friends and family members came together to make sure the venue was decorated and the food was delicious. It was so good to worship together, dance together, and to remember God's design and purpose for marriage. It has been an exciting and stretching journey learning to adjust to each other's schedules and habits and learning to prefer one another. Christmas break was a great time for Albion to get to know my family, and we had many great conversations and a lot of fun exploring California together.

Now that we are back at the training center, Albion has a few months left of classes before he graduates. I have been privileged to serve on staff in childcare, and it's been so fun to get to know all the sweet kids and their parents. We are so thankful to be surrounded by godly examples here at the training center.

When Albion graduates, we will be taking an advanced Linguistics course together that will go until December. This will be a great opportunity to practice language learning and to acquire the skills required to learn an unwritten language.

I got to attend a ladies retreat this past weekend and was so encouraged by the many truths that were shared. One thing that God challenged me with is to take the opportunities He gives me everyday to serve Him and serve others. My tendency is to allow my fear of failure or my insecurities to hold me back from what He tells me to do. I can also have idols in my life that distract me and pull me away from what He has for me.

Here are some verses that have been especially impactful for me during this time:

Hebrews 12:1-2

"Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a huge crowd of witnesses to the life of faith, let us strip off every weight that slows us down, especially the sin that so easily trips us up. And let us run with endurance the race God has set before us. We do this by keeping our eyes on Jesus, the champion who initiates and perfects our faith. Because of the joy awaiting him, he endured the cross, disregarding its shame. Now he is seated in the place of honor beside God's throne.

John 15:5

"Yes, I am the vine; you are the branches. Those who remain in me, and I in them, will produce much fruit. For apart from me you can do nothing."

14 Passages about God's Love

With so much talk about love this month, there is no greater privilege than to focus on the greatest love of all – the love of God. Perhaps the most well-known Bible verse about God's love is John 3:16:

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life."

But there are many more that show us just how much God's loves us. Use the following list as a daily scripture writing exercise, or read the verses and meditate on God's great love for you.

God's love is ...

1. Demonstrated in Jesus – Romans 5:8
2. Abundant – Psalm 103:8
3. Vast – Psalm 36:5-7
4. Unending – Lamentations 3:22-23
5. Dynamic – Zephaniah 3:17
6. Enduring – Psalm 136:26
7. Relational – 1 John 3:1
8. Unshakable – Romans 8:35-39
9. Life-giving – Ephesians 2:4-5
10. Motivating – 1 John 4:7
11. Abiding – 1 John 4:16
12. Valuable – Psalm 63:3
13. Immovable – Isaiah 54:10
14. Unfailing – Psalm 136:1-2

OUR PURPOSE AS A CHURCH IS TO DO THREE THINGS
REALLY WELL. WE HELP PEOPLE...

AWAKEN TO THE LOVE OF GOD, GROW IN THE LOVE OF GOD, AND LIVE OUT THE LOVE OF GOD.

OUR CORE VALUES SUPPORT OUR PURPOSE AND HELP TO MAINTAIN A HEALTHY AND BALANCED MINISTRY.

Guard your heart above all else,
for it determines the course of your life.
- Proverbs 4:23

IT IS OUR AIM THAT THE “HEART” OF BCC'S MINISTRY WILL BE CHARACTERIZED BY:

HARVEST VISION – We will keep our eyes on the harvest fields, those who don't yet know God in the sphere of influence He has given us (John 4:35).

EMPOWERED MINISTRY – In order to be a help and blessing to all people, we will operate by the love of God, consistent prayer, excellent training, and the gifts and power of the Holy Spirit (Luke 4:18).

AUTHENTIC WORSHIP – We will love and honor God by living lifestyles of genuine worship, faith, and Christ-likeness. We will not simply offer our community a philosophy, but will be a place where people can experience genuine encounters with the true and living God (Matthew 22:37).

RELATIONAL COMMITMENT – We will be a dedicated spiritual family, devoted to one another and maintaining a culture of love, grace, and forgiveness (Romans 12:5).

TRUTHFUL TEACHING – Devoted to the truth of God's Word in Scripture, we will present it in a way that makes sense and helps people to grow into spiritually mature disciples (1 Timothy 4:13).
